Bill and Connie

As done last week, would you please take a drive by this weekend and offer any information as to the use of this property? Once I get whatever you observe, I'll be able to complete my investigation and, more than likely, write the summons to appear.

Thanks.

I guess the meeting was a waste of your time. I counted 11 cars total. Couldn't get the ones in the backyard in the picture to good. That's more than there ever was. God only knows how many on foot?
